

Edutus University TDK Conference International Section 2023-2024-1 Semester

November 16, 2023.

Similarly, to the previous past Semesters, we organized the International Section of the Scientific Student Conference (TDK) in the 2023-2024 Autumn Semester as well, which is now „slowly” becoming a tradition at our university.

Organized by Dr. Zoltán Peredy, Head of the Edutus Engineering Institute, the event took place on November 16, 2023, in the Edutus University's Budapest Campus Villányi street building in classroom 315.

It was great development that each of TDK thesis manuscripts previously prepared and submitted by the Chinese and Erasmus students proved to be high quality focusing on complex, relevant topics. Furthermore, the English language oral presentations of these TDK theses were realised beside the interested students and the TDK Evaluation Committee as jury (chaired by Dr. Lajos Borbás prof. emeritus, members: Dr. Péter Lakatos professor and Dr. Zoltán Peredy, Head of the Edutus Engineering Institute) in front of audience of Edutus University teaching staff members and other Chinese students.

Topics and the authors of the international TDK thesis manuscripts:

1. Zhang Shunxuan: Impact of China's Electric Vehicle Exports on the European Automobile Market and EU Environmental Policy
2. Cui Zheng; Sun Jiakuan and Wang Jiayi: Impact of E-commerce on the International Economy
3. Rike Schauermaann; Torben Marques da Silva and Quang Dui Bui: Tesla Dominating the EV Market
4. Li Sijia: Chinese City-Tier Ranking Scheme. Spatial Contexts of Innovations and Lessons Learnt from Them
5. Wei Qiongyu and Jiang Muyi: Features of Z Generation Communication

Each delivered presentation followed by to be answered questions from both the jury and the audience side. After evaluating the previously submitted TDK theses and the presentation performances, the jury set up a ranking list, which was announced in the frame of a „minor” ceremony. All participating students received high prestigious certificate together with small rewards.
