

Edutus University TDK Conference International Section 2023-2024-2 Semester

May 15, 2024.

Similarly, to the previous past Semesters, we organized the International Section of the Scientific Student Conference (TDK) in the 2023-2024 Spring Semester as well, which is now becoming a tradition at our university.

Organized by Dr. Zoltán Peredy, Head of the Edutus Engineering Institute, the event took place on May 15, 2024, in the Edutus University's Budapest Campus Villányi street building in classroom 315. It was great development that the number of Chinese and Erasmus students prepared and submitted TDK thesis manuscripts continuously increasing (7 pieces) compared to the previous Semesters (3 and 5 pieces). Each of the TDK manuscript proved to be high quality focusing on complex, relevant topics. Furthermore, the English language oral presentations of these TDK theses were realised beside the interested students and the TDK Evaluation Committee as jury (chaired by Dr. Krisztina Juhász professor, members: Dr. Zoltán Peredy, Head of the Edutus Engineering Institute and Zhou Yimeng Assistant Lecturer) in front of audience of Edutus University teaching staff members and other Chinese students. Some photos about the TDK jury (above) and the audience (below):

Topics and the authors of the international TDK thesis manuscripts:

- 1) Ghisaura Riccardo and Lorenzoni Paola: Global Demographic Trends and their Impacts on the Competitiveness of Europe
- 2) Abeltino Simone and Dejana Virgilio: Tourism and service sector in Italy: the importance of tourism for the Italian economy
- 3) Huang Lijiang and Wang Shishuo: Opportunities and Challenges of the Chinese-Style Innovations from the Chinese City-Tier Ranking Scheme Aspect
- 4) Chen Leyang: Benefits and Hidden Risks of the Artificial Intelligence-Based Technological Solutions in the Chinese Companies Human Resource Management Practices
- 5) Wang Jia: Transition of the Chinese Companies Human Resource Management Practices in the Internet era
- 6) Wei Qiongyu: Global Demographic Trends and their Economic and Social Consequences from Chinese Aspects
- 7) Zhang Shunxuan: The Impact of Chinese Foreign Direct Investment in Hungary

Each delivered presentation followed by to be answered questions from both the jury and the audience side. After evaluating the previously submitted TDK theses and the presentation performances, the jury set up a ranking list, which was announced in the frame of a „minor” ceremony. All participating students received high prestigious certificate together with symbolic gift.

Photos about the results announcement:

First place Zhang Shunxuan with the TDK jury

Second place: Wei Qiongyu with the TDK jury

Third place: Team members (Huang Liming and Wang Shishuo) with the TDK jury.

Other TDK presenter without ranking

Paola Lorenzoni and Riccardo Ghisaura with the TDK jury

Albeltini Simone and Deiana Virgilio with the TDK jury

Wang Jia with the TDK jury

Chei Leyang with the TDK jury

At the end of the International TDK Conference, a common group photo was taken together with the all participating, ranked Chinese and Erasmus students and the TDK jury members in front of the Edutus University logo in the corridor:

According to the ex-post feedbacks from the interested Chinese and Erasmus students and the audience, every participants regarded this Conference as an inspiring, profitable and forward leading best practice.